

Kristina DiPalo

SPEAKER, COACH, ICONOCLAST

SPEAKING TOPICS

The New Iconoclasts

In this highly personal and provocative talk, Kristina shares how iconic imagery shaped her life until a major change made those images outdated. It's a passionate call to action and a gift for future generations.

I Am Not Done

A roadmap for questioning the assumptions behind age, work and living a productive life. Kristina shares her grounded approach to remaining engaged in the world at large.

Awakening The Iconoclast In You

What does it mean to be your own iconoclast? Combining the central role iconography plays in human thought and social interaction with the personal path of self discovery and creativity, Kristina explains how to create an iconic life.

BIO

Kristina DiPalo is a sought-after speaker and leadership coach. She brings new thinking to the challenge of staying engaged in the world regardless of age, gender or experience. She has supported people and organizations through difficult periods of change and growth.

Her speaking platform explores the power of self determination in tackling life's most challenging professional and personal transitions. With frankness and compassion, Kristina lays bare what gets in the way of living to one's fullest capacity.

Her coaching practice specializes in senior and emerging leaders, and current clients include professionals evolving their career trajectories. She is certified as an Associate Certified Coach (ACC) from the International Coaching Federation (ICF).

“WORLD-WIDE IMPACT”

“For one of our best PechaKucha Nights, broadcast to a world-wide audience, Kristina delivered one of the highlights of the evening -- a brilliant talk about looking past surfaces and seeing who other people really might be. A timely message, which Kristina treated in a beautiful and thought-provoking way.”
